

Rolando A. Bonilla Begins Tenure as Member of the San Jose Planning Commission

Commissioner Bonilla sworn in by San Jose Councilmember Magdalena Carrasco

October 8, 2019 (San Jose, Calif.) – This morning, Voler Strategic Advisor’s Chief Strategy Officer, Rolando A. Bonilla was officially sworn in as a member of the San Jose Planning Commission.

After a hard-fought process, Commissioner Bonilla successfully secured the support of the majority of the San Jose City Council to fill a commission vacancy that was recently vacated.

“It is truly an honor and a privilege to serve the largest city in the Bay Area in this capacity,” said Rolando A. Bonilla, Commissioner, San Jose Planning Commission. “I look forward to bringing my expertise to the commission, and more importantly, to serve the residents of the city of San Jose.”

As a member of the San Jose Planning Commission, Commissioner Bonilla has the responsibility of making recommendations to the San Jose City Council on land use policy. Additionally, the Planning Commission acts as an appellate body on certain Planning Director decisions.

Commissioner Bonilla holds a BA in Political Science from the University of San Francisco, and a JD from San Francisco Law School.

Commissioner Bonilla’s term ends June 30, 2022. Additionally, he will maintain his position as Chief Strategy Officer for Voler Strategic Advisors.
