

Voler Strategic Advisors' Director of Operations, Diego Barragan, Re-Appointed to the Santa Clara County Airport Land-Use Commission

Barragan unanimously re-appointed by the Santa Clara County Board of Supervisors

San Jose, Calif., (August 17, 2020) – Last week, Voler Strategic Advisors' Director of Operations, Diego Barragan, was unanimously selected by the Santa Clara County Board of Supervisors to serve a second consecutive four-year term on the Santa Clara County Airport Land-Use Commission.

The Airport Land-Use Commission (ALUC) was established to provide for appropriate development of areas surrounding public airports in Santa Clara County. ALUC is intended to minimize the public's exposure to excessive noise and safety hazards, and to ensure that the approaches to airports are kept clear of structures that pose potential aviation safety hazards.

"I would like to take this moment to thank the Santa Clara County Board of Supervisors for their continued trust in my leadership," said Diego Barragan, Commissioner, Santa Clara County Airport Land-Use Commission. "Through my service, I intend to continue working on policies that will allow for our communities and airports to thrive together."

As Director of Operations at Voler Strategic Advisors, Barragan is responsible for managing various teams and providing strategic counsel on political matters. Prior to working at Voler, Barragan served as Chief of Staff to San Jose Councilmember Margie Matthews and as a Congressional Aide to Congresswoman Zoe Lofgren.

Barragan holds a BA in Political Science from San Jose State University and an MBA from Santa Clara University.
